DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The limitation: “mapping a plurality of transport format combination indication signaling information into a number of packet data units transmitted to a wireless unit.” was not described in the specification. The text beginning at line 21 on page 4 and continuing to line 9 of page 5 discuss “mapping the RI and the transport channel (TrCH) identity (index i) scheduled by the physical layer scheduler (PLS) entity, into the number of PDUs that are transmitted to the wireless unit.” Which is different from “mapping a plurality of transport format combination indication signaling information into a number of packet data units transmitted to a wireless unit.”.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 2616

Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP § 2172.01. The step of mapping in claim 1 is not related to other steps in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shiu et al (6,624,767).

Regarding claims 1-2, Shiu disclosed a method comprising receiving packet data units in a buffer (processor 114 receives packets from data source 112 as shown in figure 1); concatenating a plurality of packet data units to produce a transport block set (step 214 in figure 2A); coding the transport block set to a coded block (step 216); rate matching the coded block to form coded sub-blocks (step 218), the coded sub-block being subject to additional processing; interleaving at least the coded sub-block (step 222); and time-multiplexing the rate-matched coded sub-blocks into a coded shared transport channel (step 232); and mapping a plurality of transport format combination indication signaling information into a number of packet data units transmitted to a wireless unit (physical channel mapping 240).

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 4/14/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicant argued that Shiu reference does not disclose a mapping technique as recited in claim 1. The examiner disagrees because the physical channel mapping 32 in figure 1 of the application is the same as the physical channel mapping 240 in figure 2A of Shiu.
